OUTLOOK

The Company's efforts are focused on selling its cloud based gift card & loyalty platform into automotive, petroleum, hospitality and retail business of all sizes. Ackroo has developed a solution that is robust, easy to use, and affordable for all merchants. Physical and digital, in-store and online, from single location mom and pops to large multi-location organizations, the Ackroo platform is built to support the growing needs of these growing business segments.

Via a SaaS based business model Ackroo charges their merchants:

a) A one-time setup fee to deploy the technology and train customers
b) Monthly recurring fees to process, support and further develop the product
c) On-going one-time fees for items like cards/collateral, custom development, distribution and marketing services

The above model is built based on a per location/department cost structure so that regardless of size the solution is not only affordable for the merchant it is scalable and profitable for Ackroo.

As of December 31, 2017 the below represents the current YTD financial metrics that relate to these fees: (Non-GAAP/IFRS measures)

- Average MRR(Monthly Recurrent Revenue) per location is $72 per location per month
- Average initial OTR (One Time Revenue) per new location is $1,178
- Average OTR (One Time Revenue) per existing customer re-order is $1,097
- Average lifetime value per location (based on a conservative 7 year minimum + initial OTR plus at least 3 additional OTR orders) is $10,517
- Cost to acquire per location organically through our channels in 2017 was approx. $1,255

These Non-GAAP/IFRS analytical metrics are calculated as per below:
Average MRR = The monthly recurring revenue from all active customers in the month of December 2017 divided by the number of active customers.
Average Initial OTR = The one time revenue from the setup and activation of all active customers for the year 2017 divided by the number of activated customers.
Average additional OTR = The average one time revenue for product and service re-orders from current Ackroo merchants.
Average lifetime value per location = The average revenue generated from a customer based on their monthly recurring revenue for 7 years, plus their initial one-time revenue plus 3 additional one-time revenue orders based on the averages above.
Cost to acquire per location = The average cost to acquire a customer through our channels based on the total cost of business development sales wages plus any associated sales related expenses divided by the number of new customers originating through the channels.

Note: The above is based on merchants who utilize the core gift card and rewards platform and not merchants that are solely using services like PhotoGIFTCARD. Management monitors these trends in order validate and assess business progress.*

The Company's Ackroo Anywhere platform provides merchants three key interfaces for their business:

1) Real time in-store and online point-of-sale integration to allow merchants to authorize and process transactions
2) A self-serve program console to help them view critical data for reconciliation, reporting and marketing purposes while also allowing them to manage and modify their program
3) Customer interfaces to allow consumers to register, check, transfer and reload balances

Combined with Ackroo's consultative sales operations approach of not only deploying technology but also assisting their merchants with how to best utilize it upfront and ongoing through analytics and marketing services the Company truly does differentiate in the marketplace.

The Company's online and in-store gift card & loyalty program options provide a blend of stored value capabilities (gift card) and advanced rewards features and functions (loyalty and promotions), arming businesses with their own 'private currency' and the flexibility to create customized rewards programs that resonate with their customers. The Ackroo rewards platform is based on currency and unit rewards and not points creating an easier to understand and simpler model to manage for customers and merchants. This strategy falls in line with Ackroo's goal of both simplifying and consolidating the fragmented gift card and loyalty landscape.

The Company acquires their customers through three distinct channels:

1. Via their integrated point of sale partners. These selected partners who sell merchant services like debit and credit or point of sale software refer their current and prospective clients to Ackroo
2. Via direct sales efforts, customer referrals, vertical market approaches etc.
3. Via merger and acquisition

It is through these channels that the Company now supports over 4,000 locations via the various products and services the Company provides.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Fair value of financial instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, due from related party, bank indebtedness, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and long-term debt. The Company believes that the recorded values of all these financial instruments, with the exception of long-term debt, approximate their current fair values because of their short-term nature. The fair value of long-term debt approximates its carrying value due to its market rate of interest.

Risk Management

The Company's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks including market risk (i.e. currency risk, interest rate risk), credit and liquidity risks.

(a) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or expected future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. Market risk comprises three types of risk: currency risk, interest rate risk and other price risk. The Company is mainly exposed to interest rate risk and currency risk.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Company's long-term debt bears interest at a fixed rate. Bank indebtedness is based on market rates plus a fixed percentage and represents some risk. As a whole, the Company's exposure to interest rate risk is minimal.

Currency risk

Currency risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in foreign exchange rates. The Company transacts primarily in Canadian dollars and is not exposed to significant currency risk.

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation. The Company's credit risks relate to its cash and cash equivalents and accounts receivable. The Company's cash and cash equivalents are deposited with a Canadian chartered bank and as a result management believes the risk of loss on this item to be remote. Management believes that the credit risk on its accounts receivable is limited as the amounts are expected to be collected in the Company's next operating cycle.

The aging of accounts receivable balances at December 31, 2017 are as follows:

During the year ended December 31, 2017, there was no single customer that accounted for 10% or greater of the total Company sales.

(c) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company's management believes its existing working capital coupled with the cash that will be generated from its operations coupled with additional financing activities will enable the Company to meet its financial obligations. Note 2 to the Financial Statements discusses liquidity risk and management's plans to address these.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

At December 31, 2017, the Company has a deficit of $14,223,507 and expects to incur further losses in the development of its business. As the Company is still in its early stages of its growth plan the Company does not generate sufficient revenue and has not yet achieved profitable operations and expects to incur further losses. The Company's objective in managing liquidity risk is to maintain sufficient liquidity to meet operational and investing requirements at any point in time. The Company has historically financed its operations and met its capital requirements primarily through the sale of capital stock by way of private placement, exercise of stock options, debt, and the exercise of warrants issued.

The decrease in 2017 was primarily due to less equity raises being completed coupled with the repayment of long-term debt and operational losses. The resulting cash balances were $33,513 and $643,248 as at December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

The Company has negative working capital of $825,119 as at December 31, 2017 as compared to negative working capital of $246,884 as at December 31, 2016. d) Stock options

Under the terms of the Company's approved Stock Option Plan (ESOP) the Board of Directors of the Company may, from time to time, in its discretion, and in accordance with the Exchange requirements, grant to directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Company options to purchase common shares, provided that the number of common shares reserved for issuance, together with those to be issued pursuant to options previously granted, does not exceed 10% of the issued and outstanding common shares at the time of the grant. In addition, the number of shares which may be reserved for issuance to any one individual may not exceed 5% of the issued shares on a yearly basis, or 2% if the optionee is engaged in investor relations activities or is a consultant.

Under Exchange policy, all such rolling stock option plans which set the number of common shares issuable under the plan at a maximum of 10% of the issued and outstanding common shares must be approved and ratified by shareholders on an annual basis. Options are exercisable over periods of up to three years as determined by the Board of Directors and are required to have an exercise price no less than the closing market price of the common shares prevailing on the day that the option is granted less a discount of up to 25%, with the amount of the discount varying with market price in accordance with the policies of the Exchange. Options held by an officer, director or service provider (not conducting investor relations) expire 30 days after the option holder has left office or the service provider ceases providing services, and for options held by service providers conducting investor relations, 30 days after the Company terminates that relationship. In the case of the death of an employee, officer, director or other service provider, the option may be exercised by a personal representative or heir until the earlier of the option's expiry or one year after the option holder died.

Pursuant to the Stock Option Plan, the Board of Directors may from time to time authorize the grant of options to directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Company or employees of companies providing management or consulting services to the Company. Other than options granted to consultants performing investor relations activities which must vest in stages over 12 months with no more than one-quarter of the options vesting in any three-month period, the Stock Option Plan contains no vesting requirements, but permits the Board of Directors to specify a vesting schedule in its discretion.

The fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions:

	2017	2016
Risk free interest rate	1.34%	0.56%
Dividend yield	nil	nil
Expected volatility	124%	213%
Expected life	1-3 years	1-3 Years

Compensation expense recorded for options granted in 2017 totaled $265,900 (2016 - $ 523,606).

The Company uses the Black-Scholes model to calculate option fair values which requires highly subjective assumptions, including future stock price volatility and expected time until exercise, which greatly affect the calculated values. The expected volatility is based on the Company's historical volatility since it became publicly listed plus the historical volatility of the TSX Venture index for the period before its public listing. The expected life is the average expected period to exercise, which given the Company's limited option history, was based on industry benchmarks. The risk-free interest rate is the yield on zero-coupon Canadian government bonds of a term consistent with the assumed option expected life.

RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Ability to Manage Growth

Should the Company be successful in its efforts to acquire customers it will experience significant growth in operations. If this occurs management anticipates that additional expansion will be required in order to continue development. Any expansion of the Company's business would place further demands on its management, operational capacity and financial resources. The failure to manage growth effectively could have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Possible Dilution to Present and Prospective Shareholders

The Company's plan of operation, in part, contemplates the further issuance of securities of the Company and possibly, incurring debt. Any transaction involving the issuance of previously authorized but unissued common shares would result in dilution, possibly substantial, to present and prospective holders of common shares.

Dependence of Key Personnel

The Company strongly depends on the business and technical expertise of its management and key personnel. There is little possibility that this dependence will decrease in the near term.

Lack of Trading

The lack of trading volume of the Company's shares reduces the liquidity of an investment in the Company's shares.

Volatility of Share Price
Market prices for shares of TSX Venture Exchange companies are often volatile. Factors such as announcements of financial results, and other factors could have a significant effect on the price of the Company's shares.

Trends and Uncertainties
The Company's ability to generate revenues in the future is dependent on its ability to successfully acquire channel partners, customers and create an infrastructure to economically manage any resulting growth in operations.

Future Operations
Presently, the Company revenues are not sufficient to meet operating and capital expenses and the Company has incurred operating losses since inception, which are likely to continue for the foreseeable future. The Company anticipates that it will have negative cash flows in the near term. There is no assurance that the Company will operate profitably or will generate positive cash flow in the future. In addition, the Company's operating results in the future may be subject to significant fluctuations due to many factors not within our control, such as the unpredictability of when customers will place orders, the size of customers' orders, the demand for the Company's platform and solutions, the level of competition and general economic conditions. The Company expects to incur operating losses and negative cash flow until its platform gain market acceptance sufficient to generate a commercially viable and sustainable level of sales so that it is operating in a profitable manner. The Company has historically financed its operations and met its capital requirements primarily through the sale of capital stock by way of private placement, exercise of stock options, debt, and the exercise of warrants issued and will continue to do so when necessary to ensure the liquidity of the business. These circumstances raise doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

There have been no significant changes to any accounting estimates as disclosed in the Company's most recent audited Financial Statements as at and for the period ended December 31, 2017.

CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES INCLUDING INITIAL ADOPTION

The Company has disclosed information of standards issued but not yet effective in Note 4 to the Consolidated Financial Statements which accompany this MD&A.
